

Egypt 06 Nights / 07 Days

01 Night in Aswan – 03 Nights in Cruise – 02 Nights in Cairo

Egypt

Egypt is one of the most populous countries in Africa and the Middle East, and the 15th most populated in the world. The great majority of its over 82 million people live near the banks of the Nile River an area of about 40,000 square kilometers (15,000 sq mi), where the only arable land is found. The large regions of the Sahara Desert, which constitute most of Egypt's territory, are sparsely inhabited. About half of Egypt's residents live in urban areas with most spread across the densely populated centers of greater Cairo, Alexandria and other major cities in the Nile Delta.

Egypt has one of the longest histories of any modern state having been continuously inhabited since the 10th millennium. Its monuments such as the Giza pyramid complex and its Great Sphinx were constructed by its ancient civilization, which was one of the most advanced of its time. Its ancient ruins, such as those of Memphis, Thebes, Karnak, and the Valley of the Kings outside Luxor, are a significant focus of archaeological study and popular interest. Egypt's rich cultural legacy, as well as the attraction of its Red Sea Riviera, has made tourism a vital part of the economy, employing about 12% of the country's workforce. The economy of Egypt is one of the most diversified in the Middle East, with sectors such as tourism, agriculture, industry and services at almost equal production levels. Egypt is considered to be a middle power with significant cultural, political, and military influence in the Mediterranean, the Middle East and the Muslim world.

Day 02

After breakfast our representative will meet you in hotel lobby and take you to cruise, drop your baggage in room or reception, you will be informed for tours and programs for rest of the day.

Please note that different cruises have different itineraries, your actual itinerary could be same or different from the details given below but in any case it will be a similar program and you will have opportunity to see all the places given below, only it could be in different time & order.

After settling down in cruise proceed to Aswan High Dam with your guide, this tour is conducted in Air-conditioned vehicle. It is almost 30 minutes drive, Aswan High Dam is known as the second largest Dam in the world, it is an embankment dam situated across the Nile River in Aswan, it was built by Egyptian President Jamal Nasser with help of Soviet Russian government in 10 Years and completed in 1970 after the death of President Jamal Nasser. The Russian Prime minister Khrushchev called it the Eighth Wonder of World.

After Aswan proceed to Temple of Philae, which is now located in Agilkia island in mid of Lake Nasser, earlier this temple was situated in a nearby area which later came underwater because of the construction of Aswan Dam in early 20th Century around 1902 AD. Egyptologists dismantled the whole temple in pieces and reconstructed it to 500 meter away at Agilkia Island where it is today.

Then Proceed to unfinished Obelisk. The unfinished obelisk is the largest known ancient Obelisk, an obelisk (pointed pillar) is a tall, four-sided, narrow tapering monument which ends in a pyramid-like shape at the top.

During the above program sometimes you may also have a felucca tour included, A felucca is a traditional wooden sailing boat used in waters of river Nile.

Back to cruise on conclusion, have your complementary evening tea at the upper deck. In the evening you will have an entertaining program like Nubian Dance or traditional Ethiopian dances show on the cruise.

After dinner, ship will start sailing to Kom Ombo, it is an agricultural town in Aswan and famous for the Temple of Kom Ombo. It was originally an Egyptian city called Nubt, meaning City of Gold.

Spend Night over Cruise

Day 03

After breakfast walk to Kom Ombo Temple, normally cruise anchors just in front of the temple which is right at the bank of Nile river, Temple Kom Ombo which is shared by two gods Sobek & Haeroris, Sobek is considered as Crocodile god while Haeroris is Falcon god. This temple was use to worship two gods at a time and everything in this temple is made double for each god, Temple was made between 180 to 47 BC. There is a crocodile museum next to this temple with hundreds of crocodile mummies.

On the conclusion walk back to cruise, Cruise will start sailing to Edfu, during the journey you will have your lunch, Edfu is an ancient Egyptian city located near Aswan and is famous for Ptolemaic Temple of Horus built in 273 AD. Your guide will take you to Edfu town and temple in a Horse Cart (Horse Wagon), it is 20 – 25 minute journey passing through the sandy roads and narrow streets of Edfu, you will find countless local shops, food outlets and groceries on both sides of roads, the whole town of Edfu is stands still besides all the centuries passed by. After crossing a centuries old Egyptian traditional Bazar, with small shops and pavement hawkers you reach Edfu Temple, which is one of the most preserves ancient temples in Egypt, because of the it's intact infrastructure, it gives more & detailed information to us about times than any other temple of that era. With the he high walls, long corridors, statues & wall drawings with 2000 old colors which still shines and look beautiful, Edfu mesmerize you slowly and then completely in trans.

Evening; back to Cruise and have your Tea at upper deck, then there will be an entertaining program, mostly it happens to be a traditional Arabic fancy dress party or a casual one, Dinner and over night at Cruise Ship will sail to Luxor tonight

You may ask any staff member that when ship will pass through two different levels of waters in Nile, it's a life time opportunity to evidence that how they take whole cruise to a "Lock" remove the water beneath the ship and transport ship to lower level of Nile, it happens between Edfu & Luxor journey only and Ship Staff may give you a correct time of this crossing over Nile.

Day 04

After breakfast proceed to visit West Bank of Nile in Luxor, which is called Valley of the Kings & Queens, it is a valley where in 16th to 11th century BC tombs were constructed for the Pharaohs and powerful nobles. It is opposite Thebes, here you may visit to Tomb of famous Pharaoh King Tut Ank Amun, whose tomb founded in most intact condition in 1922 by British Egyptologist Howard Carter with a huge amount of various things belongs to his Era, Tut Ank Amun was 09 Years old when he took over throne, at 12 he got married and died when he was 18 years, he is one of the most famous personality of that dynasty. You can still see his body (mummy) in original if you visit his tomb in valley of Kings. The Second famous and most visited tomb belongs to King Ramsees II. A "must visit" type of tomb.

After that visit to Temple of Queen Hatshepsut

Hatshepsut, the female pharaoh (Queen) is one of the most successful pharaohs in 1500 BC, She ruled Egypt almost 21 years from 1479 to 1458 BC, Queen Hatshepsut era was a good governance; commercial mission sent to neighboring countries to establish foreign trade. She left her images as most smart lady in Egyptian history of the era. Visit a local arti-craft factory outlet which manufacture replica of ancient statues and drawings you may purchase them after smart bargaining if you wish so. Visit Mortuary Temple of Amenhotep III (Twin Statues) on your way back.

On conclusion back to cruise and Lunch on board, Tea at upper deck, in the evening expect another entertaining event (probably a belly dance or dance party) then proceed for dinner and sometimes after dinner you have another party too.

Overnight at cruise

Day 05

Morning you have to check out from your room at 08 am, so you have to wake-up early, pack and leave your luggage at Cruise reception, after breakfast, Today your guide will take you for East Bank tour of Luxor.

First to Karnak Temple; it is believed as second largest religious site in the world with area of more than 60 acres. Approximately thirty Pharaohs contributed to build this temple and the construction was continuously going for hundreds of years, it's a huge complex with hundreds of columns (Pillars) the astonishing height of these pillars ranges from 10 to 21 meters and tops stones placed on these pillars are as heavy as 70 Tons, most of the part of this temple were built to worship "Amun Ra" the hidden and most worshipped god.

After that Proceed to Luxor Temple which was built in 1400 BC by with sandstones which could last thousands of years without any damage. Rear part of the temple built by Amenhotep III. Other parts of the temple were built by Tut Ankh Amun and Ramesses II. The temple of Luxor was built to celebrate all the festivals and it was the main venue for all religious happenings.

After this tour you will be dropped back to cruise and our representative will take you to Luxor Airport to get your next flight to Cairo ✈️.

After almost an hour's flight, upon arrival at Cairo airport, you will be received by our representative, who will take you to hotel, check-in to your hotel.
